RIVIERA BEACH MARINA CONTRACTORS HELP JOB HUNTERS PREP FOR JOB FAIR

WHAT: Facing a shortage of laborers in the construction industry, the contractors responsible for the redevelopment of the Riviera Beach Marina are helping their subcontractors find potential workers. On February 13, they are hosting an Interview Boot Camp to prepare interested candidates for a Job Fair to be held four days later.

The first phase of the marina redevelopment includes the construction of the Marina Event Center and improvements to Bicentennial Park, plus infrastructure improvements throughout the site. Opportunities range from skilled labor to project management.

The Interview Boot Camp will assist candidates with interview techniques, resume preparation, appropriate dress and more. Attendees will be get priority for meetings at the Job Fair. Prizes will also be awarded to those attending the Interview Boot Camp.
